✓ G. That a high priority be granted for the immediate recruiting, processing and training of the staff, using as the minimum immediate target the magnitude set forth in the report of 21 February 1951 on "Reorganization of the Training Division" (which was approved in principle) but that an unusually high degree of administrative flexibility be granted in order to take advantage of the developments that will result from the research recommended in Paragraph I below.

✓ H. That immediate steps be taken to develop a permanent training establishment in such a location and manner that it will be susceptible to rapid and well-planned expansion to meet either cold or total war training requirements.

✓ I. That the Working Committee for Operational Training be directed to conduct appropriate research and submit recommendations with regard to the following problem areas which are briefly high-lighted in Section III-B:

1. Position analysis
2. Flexible packaging
3. Training counselors
4. Evaluation and assessment
5. Priorities and streamlining
6. In-service training
7. External training facilitation
8. Overseas training
9. Training aids
